

MUSIC

The aim of the Department of Music is to further the intellectual and aesthetic development of the student through the medium of music theory and practice, secular and religious. The student majoring in music may concentrate in applied music, theory and composition, church music, or music education. Students concentrating in church music may emphasize organ, voice, choral conducting, piano, guitar or composition. Students concentrating in music education may emphasize a keyboard instrument, a band instrument, or voice. (See Notes on page 142 for ensemble participation requirements for the various concentrations).

NOTES: For all students majoring or minoring in music or enrolled in the group major program in Music/Business Administration, participation in a faculty-directed major ensemble each semester is required. Students completing the all-level major in music with vocal emphasis are to participate in chorus each semester. Students completing the all-level major in music with instrumental emphasis are to participate in band each semester. For those concentrating in church music, participation in chorus is required each semester. The required participation applies to every semester that the student is enrolled in the College.

All music majors must pass a piano proficiency examination prior to graduation. A student is to enroll for piano lessons every semester until the proficiency examination is passed.

Each semester all music majors will perform in at least one of the several student recitals unless specifically excused by the chairman of the department.

Courses in applied music may not be audited nor may composition be audited.

Music majors who wish to be recommended to the Teacher Education Committee for admission to the Teacher Education Program and for student teaching must have at least a 2.750 GPA in the music major.

All students completing the Music Education Concentration are required to take one credit of private lessons in their principal performance medium in each of their first seven semesters.
