

JOURNALISM

The Journalism minor is appropriate with any major and should be considered by students who wish to pursue careers in writing, reporting and editing for the print or broadcast media. Special consideration should be given by secondary education minors who would like preparation to supervise a high school newspaper.

The minor in Journalism stresses communication skills in newspaper writing, editing and Adobe/Pagemaker desktop publishing. Coursework in Journalism ethics and/or Media and the Law are also requirements for a Journalism minor. Six credits of electives from Mass Communication, Photojournalism, Newspaper Editorial/Management Practices & Policies, complete the program.

Journalism minors are expected to gain experience working on The Observer, the award-winning student newspaper. Internships may be available to Journalism minors with an overall GPA of 3.000 in their senior year.

The Journalism minor is supervised by the Department of English.
