All new students, and all degree-seeking students taking more than 5 credit hours per semester, must file for financial aid (FAFSA). In order to be considered having applied on time, your application must be received by the Federal Processor by March 10. Those who file late will only be considered for waiver of up to a maximum of 11 credit hours per semester. Those who do not file at all will only be considered for waiver of 5 credit hours per semester. New students must also be accepted by Admissions. Returning, degree-seeking students must also file for financial aid (FAFSA) and have their application received by the Federal Processor by March 10 each year unless, due to ineligibility, other arrangements are made with the Financial Aid Office.

Waiver applications for full-time students should be returned to Human Resources by March 31 each year. Part-time students (5 credit hours or less) may return the waiver application anytime prior to the first day of classes each semester. You will be notified by Human Resources when this waiver is approved. The Business Office will send you a statement for any applicable fees, room and board charges, etc. that are not included in this waiver.
